

WHEN THINGS SEEM DARKEST

1. I would want you to speak the truth to me about the objective reality of the love of God in the historical act of the death of his Son. (Rom. 10:7; 5:6-8; Gal. 2:20; 1 John 4:10; John 15:13; Rev. 1:5)
2. I would want you to remind me of God’s love that was shown to me when he made me alive and gave me the mustard seed of faith that I’m struggling to hold on to. (Eph. 2:4-5; Rom. 8:38-39; Micah 7:8-9)
3. I would want you to remind me that even when darkness covers me, and wherever I go in my weariness, God is there, and he is my light. (Psalm 139:7-12; 30:5)
4. I would want you to remind me that the the struggle to feel the love of Christ would be part of the Christian warfare, and God’s Word teaches me how to pray about it (Eph. 3:18-19)
